

SYNNIE GENE ATLAS: Newspaper Obituary and Death Notice

Press-Enterprise, The (Riverside, CA) - August 8, 2003

Deceased Name: SYNNIE GENE ATLAS

SYNNIE GENE ATLAS, 59, died July 30 at Del Rosa Convalescent Hospital in San Bernardino. Born in Silver Creek, Miss., Mr. Atlas lived in San Bernardino 49 years before he moved to Rialto about a year ago. He was a real estate agent and worked in dry cleaning and landscaping until he retired as a property maintenance man in 2001.

He attended Mt. Vernon Elementary School in San Bernardino, San Bernardino High School and San Bernardino Valley College.

Mr. Atlas belonged to the American Legion and St. Paul African Methodist Episcopal Church in San Bernardino.

He served in the U.S. Army and the U.S. Navy.

Mr. Atlas is survived by two daughters, Monique Donaldson and Chevon, both of San Bernardino; two sons, Anthony Gooden of Nevada and Dale of San Bernardino; six grandchildren; his mother, Anna Stevens of Rialto; seven brothers, Edgar of Salinas, Edward of Stockton, Marvin of Texas and Billy, Albert, Preston and Johnny, all of Rialto; a stepbrother, Allie Stevens Jr. of Rialto; six sisters, Bobbi Fowler and Edna Wright, both of Rialto, Darlene Carter of Highland, Sara Kelly of Indiana, Kathy Johnson of Colton and Linda Johnson of New York; and a companion of 27 years, Bonnie Gooden of San Bernardino.

Services will be at 11 a.m. today at St. Paul AME Church in San Bernardino. Friends may call at the church from 10 a.m. until the service time today. Interment will be in Riverside National Cemetery. Inland Memorial Cremation and Burial Services in Colton is handling arrangements.

* * *

Edition: SAN BERNARDINO COUNTY

Page: B04

Copyright (c) 2003 Press-Enterprise Co.