THANK YOU NOTE

Perhaps, you sang a lovely song,
Or sat quietly in a chair;
Perhaps, you sent a funeral spray,
If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps, you spoke the kindest words
As any friend could say.
Perhaps, you were not there at all,
Just thought of us that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts,
We thank you so much, whatever the part.
May God bless each of you.

Obituary

And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes, And there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain.—Rev. 21:4

Alice Atlas was born to bless the union of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Atlas Feb. 28, 1895 in East Carroll Parish, Lake Providence, La.

Sometime during the year of 1914 she confessed a hope in Christ and became affiliated with the Mt. Lebanon Baptist Church, under the leadership of the late Rev. Tom Yearis. In 1930 she became a member of the Mt. Olive Baptist Church, pastored by the late Rev. C. C. Cable, and remained faithful until failing health caused her to move from Lake Providence to live with her children. She was a lovable person, one that anyone would like to have as a friend.

Sister Marshall passed this life in the Flint Goodrich Hospital, New Orleans, La., Wednesday, May 18, 1977 at 12:00 midnight.

"There is an open gate at the end of the road through which each must go alone. And there, in the light we cannot see, our Father claims His own. Beyond the gate your loved one finds happiness and rest. And there is comfort in the thought that a loving God knows best."

Survivors include: Four daughters, Mrs. Willie Pearl Davis, Mrs. Thelma Scott, Los Angeles, Calif., Mrs. Lula Mae Flood, Saginaw, Mich., Mrs. Ruth Graham, Port Arthur, Tex.; four sons, Edward Marshall, Seattle, Wash., Albert Marshall, Los Angeles, Calif., Eric Marshall, Reuben Marshall, both of New Orleans, La.; one sister, Mrs. Lealer Phillips, Milwaukee, Wis.; three daughters-in-law, four sons-in-law, 11 grandchildren, nine great grandchildren, a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
