Message from Mother & Family to Daughter

I know you're gone to a place where there are no more worries.

I wish you didn't have to leave me this way. But I know God will take care of you. Although its hard to say good-bye and parting brings such pain, we try not to think about our loss but of our loved one's gain.

*For past the gates of life and death
The one we love will be
Happy in God's tender care
For all eternity*
