

Do Not Stand At My Grave And Weep
Do not stand at my grave and weep
I am not there, I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow.
I am the diamond glints on snow.
I am the sunlight on ripened grain.
I am the gentle autumn rain.

When you awaken
In the morning's hush,
I am the swift uplifting rush
Of quiet birds in circle flight.
I am the soft stars that shine at night.
Do not stand at my grave and cry,
I am not there, I did not die.

Acknowledgement

Our hearts are bowed in sorrow over the passing of our beloved Dorothy. Yet during these times you have lifted many of our burdens for which we are eternally grateful. Your many kind expressions of sympathy and all other acts of kindness shown during our many hours of bereavement shall never be forgotten. From the depths of our hearts all of us say "Thanks to each of you". The Family of Sister Dorothy L. (Facen) Maxey

Rites Of Passage
Dorothy Lee (Facen) Maxey

A rite of passage is a ceremony signaling the movement from one life state to the next, bringing one into closer unity with the Creator.
It signifies a transformation in the structure of life.

Dorothy Lee(Facen) Maxey was born on June 11, 1931 in Lake Providence, Louisiana to the late Rev.
Sandy Facen and Sarah (Hearns) Facen. Dorothy was married to George H. Maxey, Jr. and lived in Colorado Springs, since 1962. She was a dedicated, loving wife, mother, and grandmother. She was a Charter member of Emmanuel Missionary Baptist Church and served faithfully in the Missionary Department, choir, usher board, nursery, As well as working in the kitchen. Dorothy loved The Lord and was faithful to her calling to the end. She touched numerous lives with her wisdom and strength. Like God's love, her kindness and goodness will stay with us as long as we shall live. She leaves to cherish precious memories, her Loving children, Adrian, George, and Joseph; five grandchildren, Danielle, Aisha, Keena, Luther and Dion; seven great grandchildren, Symone, Christian, Asia, Gabriel, Devon, Tasai, and Temple; one great great grandchild, Sincere; two sisters, Sarah Edwards and Callie Edwards; two brothers, Marge Facen and Sandy Facen; sister-in-law, Lillian Mallory and friends.
