Obituary

On March 7, 1895 in Lake Providence, Louisiana, King D. Atlas was born to Mr. L. B. Atlas and Mrs. Susie Lee Atlas.

He attended Tuskegee (Alabama) College where he mastered the carpentry trade which became his life's work. During World War I, he served honorably in the United States Army. For many years, he was an employee of the Chicago Veterans Administration from which he retired.

While a member of St. John A. M. E. Church, Chicago, Illinois, he served as a Trustee under the Reverend David Ready. He worked faithfully in the church, donating his time and carpentry skills to maintain the church.

Upon moving to Memphis, he joined St. Andrew A. M. E. Church where he was a loyal member for the past twenty years.

He enjoyed regular church attendance and the Men's Club at J. K. Lewis Senior Citizen's Center. He also enjoyed extensive travel in such places as Alaska, Canada, Hawaii, Scandinavia, the Baltic Sea, Mexico and most of the United States.

Surviving to cherish his memory are: his wife, Mrs. Maxine Atlas; a daughter, Ms. Marvaleen Atlas; stepdaughters, Mrs. Anna M. Walker and Ms. Henryne A. Hines; stepson, Mr. Henry Hines III; sisters, Ms. Ethel Atlas and Ms. Annie Atlas; brothers, Mr. Joseph Atlas, Mr. Lawrence Atlas and Mr. Wesley J. Atlas; eight grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Sunset and evening star,
And one clear call for me,
May there be no mourning at the bar,
When I put out to sea.
