

God saw you getting tired and a cure was not to be, so he put his arms around you and whispered "Come to me." With tearful eyes we watched you and saw you pass away. Although we loved you dearly, we could not make you stay. A golden heart stopped beating, hard working hands at rest, God broke our hearts to prove to us He only takes the best.

Obituary

Willie Pearl Marshall was born to Alice and Albert Marshall Sr. on August 24, 1918. She grew up in Lake Providence Louisiana with her four brothers Edward, Albert Jr., Eric, Ruben and three sisters Thelma, Lula Mae, and Ruth. Pearl was educated through the Lake Providence school district.

In 1943, Willie Pearl moved to California where she later married the love of her life Ernest Davis. Willie Pearl and Ernest joined Morningstar Missionary Baptist Church in 1960 and remained active for over 31 years. As a layperson in the church she served on the Usher Board, Mission Society, Hospitality Committee, Deaconess Board, and many other capacities as the Lord led her. She was a faithful member and loved her church family dearly.

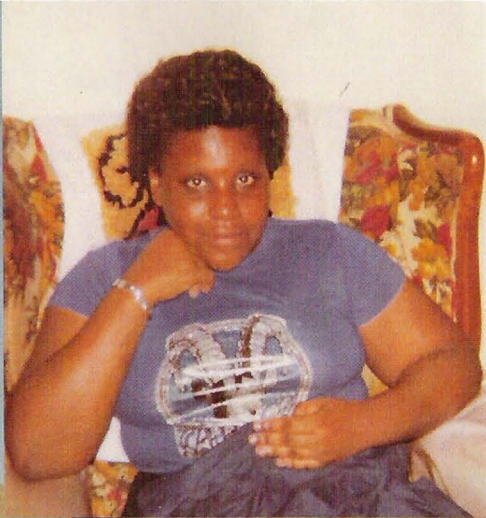

Willie Pearl's nurturing spirit led her to the health care profession. She worked for over twenty years at Cedars Sinai Hospital caring for those who were fighting kidney disease. On October 25, 2007 at 11:43 p.m., Willie Pearl awoke at the throne of her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

To know "Pearl" was to know a beautifully stylish, classy lady who would lend a hand to those who were down, open her door to those who needed shelter, open her closet to those who needed clothing, cook a mean pot of greens for those who needed nourishment and opened her arms to those who needed just a human touch. Pearl was a dear person who "told it like it was". Her home going will be deeply felt by all who survive her.

Pearl leaves to many to celebrate her home going: her beloved brothers, Albert Marshall Jr. and Ruben Marshall; her sister Thelma Scott; her sister-in-law Melba Marshall; her nieces Claudette Wiltz, Alice Graham; nephews; Kenneth Marshall, Robert Graham Jr.; Great nieces: Sharon Wiltz-Cox, Patricia Marshall-White, Shernell Sheppard, Felicia Marshall and Sharhoda Guidry; Great Nephews: Patrick Wiltz, Michael Gilmore, Ruben Marshall Jr., Tony Graham, Dewayne Although, Aaron Campbell, Michael White, Tyler Graham and; and a host of other family and friends.
